DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1, 3-4, and 6-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Anderson et al. US 5,035,784 in view of Cooper et al. US 5,294,315.

Regarding claims 1, 4, and 7, Anderson '784 discloses a method for degradation of gaseous or liquid PCBs (abstract and column 2, lines 35-39) comprising degrading photocatalysis under ultraviolet light (abstract) at 60 degrees C (Example 1), mixing with air, and irradiating (see column 7, lines 12-21).

Anderson fails to disclose a powder.

Cooper '315 discloses a powder (see abstract and column 3, line 29).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a powder form, as in Cooper, in the photocatalyst of Anderson's PCB treatment process because Cooper discloses the powder as a photocatalyst for treatment of polychlorinated biphenyls (column 3, line 2) and Anderson discloses a "particulate" film (see Examples and column 2, lines 49-64).

The claimed negative limitation of heating without electromagnetic waves would have been further obvious because Cooper discloses providing heat, with the catalyst reducing the heat required, which would motivate an ordinary artisan to use heat in place of electromagnetic waves, as disclosed in the prior art, where appropriate.

Regarding claims 3 and 6, Anderson discloses UV light and PCBs (abstract) and a waste stream (column 3, lines 66-68), which would obviously, to one of ordinary skill, have a subjectively bad odor.

Conclusion

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
